	Thur	John 12:20-50	The tremendous emotions of Jesus over His coming suffering and the awful rejection He had encountered so far begin to reach a peak here. The scene is so powerful that God even speaks again from heaven for their benefit; but, as usual, it is rejected (v. 28).
	Fri	Matthew 24:1-34; Mark 13:1-31; Luke 21:5-34	Jesus predicts the destruction of Jerusalem, and says that it would take place in their generation.
	Sat	Matthew 24:35-51; 25:1-46; Mk 13:32-37; Lk 21:35-37	Now He turns to the question of the second coming. He reveals many important truths about THAT day, but gives no signs that would allow anyone to identify the day or the hour!
