✓	Week 31	Scriptures	Notes
	Sun (8/3)	Romans 9:1-33	Chapters 9-11 are the source of much unneeded controversy in the religious world. Read these chapters with the understanding (from chapters 1-8) that the only way to be saved is for people to come to Christ individually. God does not save nations or ethnic groups as groups! Of course, if all of the individuals obey Him, the whole group would be saved.
	Mon	Romans 10:1-21
	Tue	Romans 11:1-36
	Wed	Romans 12:1-21	Chapter 12 begins the section on our "reasonable (logical) service" by listing many ways of serving God.
	Thur	Romans 13:1-14	Chapter 13 stresses the Christian's responsibility toward the authorities in his country.
	Fri	Romans 14:1-23	Chapter 14 teaches us to be considerate of one another toward matters of option (and also teaches that a matter cannot be optional unless it is first right ; verse 23; see also I Thessalonians 5:21).
	Sat	Romans 15:1-33	Chapter 15 teaches about the oneness that comes from spiritual service.

✓	Week 32	Scriptures	Notes
	Sun (8/10)	Romans 16:1-27	Chapter 16 illustrates the beauty of spiritual service by listing people who lived the way they should!
	Mon	Acts 20:1-38	Paul and several companions now resume the third evangelistic journey (which began in Acts 18:23) by leaving Macedonia and moving east through Turkey. Acts 20:7 is the famous passage which, when used properly with others, shows that the Lord's Supper was observed on every first day of the week (see Matthew 26:26-29; I Corinthians 11:17-33; 16:1-3).
	Tue	Acts 21:1-40	The journey ends in Acts 21:16, and the story immediately shifts to show how Paul ended up at Rome—a long-time desire being fulfilled.
	Wed	Acts 22:1-30	Chapter 22 is one of the three accounts of his conversion in Acts (see also chapters 9 and 26). Note what Paul believed about the washing away of his sins in Acts 22:16.
	Thur	Acts 23:1-35	In chapter 23, Paul continues to defend himself by bringing up the resurrection in order to divide his accusers against one another! In Acts 23:31, he is taken on a journey that ends in Caesarea for more trials and persecution.
	Fri	Acts 24:1-27	Amidst more accusations in chapter 24, Paul makes another inspired defense as an apostle of Christ (see Matthew 10:16-20).
	Sat	Acts 25:1-27	In chapter 25, Paul makes his appeal unto Caesar, one of his rights as a freeborn Roman citizen, thus guaranteeing a trip to Rome.
