✓	Week 19	Scriptures	Notes
	Sun (5/11)	Mat 27:1,2; Mark 15:1; Luke 22:66-23:1; John 18:28	In the third stage of the Jewish trial, He is formally condemned and then led to Pilate.
	Mon	Matthew 27:11-14; Mark 15:2-5; Luke 23:2-5; Jn 18:29-38	The Roman trial begins with the divine King of kings before an earthly ruler.
	Tue	Luke 23:6-12	At the second stage of the Roman trial, King Jesus is before “King” Herod.
	Wed	Matthew 27:15-30; Mark 15:6-19; Lk 23:13-25; John 18:39-19:16	Here is the third stage of the Roman trial, where the Innocent One is condemned by a guilty one to die in the place of everyone else on earth (Romans 5:6-21).
	Thur	Matthew 27:3-10; Acts 1:18,19	The betrayer does not truly repent, as the denier did. He kills himself—while the denier obtains forgiveness and leads countless souls to the cross. Which path will you and I take, fellow sinner?
	Fri	Matthew 27:31-34; Mk 15:20-23; Lk 23:26-33; John 19:17	It is still getting harder—now they are on the way—yes, THE WAY is on “the way”—to Golgotha.
	Sat	Matthew 27:35-44; Mk 15:24-32; Lk 23:33-43; Jn 19:18-27	These are the events, people, and sayings during the first three hours of the crucifixion. The I AM—what is He now?

A CHRONOLOGICAL BIBLE READING SCHEDULE by Skip Andrews

✓	Week 20	Scriptures	Notes
	Sun (5/18)	Matthew 27:45-56; Mk 15:33-41; Lk 23:44-49; Jn 19:28-30	Jesus makes a few more statements. Darkness—death—heaven and earth shake. “Truly this was the Son of God.” And now the multitudes have something else to think about—but will they?
	Mon	Matthew 27:57-66; Mk 15:42-47; Lk 23:50-56; Jn 19:31-42	Witnesses determine that Jesus is dead, so His body is taken down and laid in a tomb where “never man” was laid. Note how many people are close to this situation and what their reactions are.
	Tue	Matthew 28:1-8; Mark 16:1-8; Lk 24:1-8,12; John 20:1-10	While we are still grieving over His death, the scene shifts to the empty tomb and another host of witnesses—witnesses who knew that HE IS NOT HERE—BUT IS RISEN!
	Wed	Matthew 28:9,10; Mark 16:9-11; Luke 24:9-11; John 20:11-18	Jesus now begins to make appearances to a wide variety of people in different places over 40 days, thus providing the “many infallible proofs” of His resurrection (Acts 1:1-3). Here, He appears to Mary Magdalene and then to several women.
	Thur	Matthew 28:11-15	The enemies of the cross learn that the body is gone, and a story is devised that He was “stolen away.”
	Fri	Mk 16:12,13; Lk 24:13-35	The main story here is His appearance to two disciples on the road to Emmaeus and His discussion with them. It is still the same day.
	Sat	Mark 16:14; Lk 24:36-43; Jn 20:19-25; 20:26-31	On that evening He shows Himself to the “eleven,” except Thomas.
