

A CHRONOLOGICAL BIBLE READING SCHEDULE by Skip Andrews

✓	Week 33	Scriptures	Notes
	Sun (8/17)	Acts 26:1-32	The events leading to the voyage to Rome continue in chapter 26 as Paul defends himself before Herod Agrippa, the last mentioned Herod in the Bible (descendants of Esau).
	Mon	Acts 27:1-44	Chapter 27 records the voyage and the shipwreck. This is not one of the shipwrecks of II Corinthians 11:25 because II Corinthians was written several years before this.
	Tue	Acts 28:1-31	Chapter 28 shows how Paul finally got to Rome. Remember the “prosperous journey” he had requested of them to petition for in their prayers (Romans 1:10)? The date is in the early 60's. Luke now finishes writing Acts, and Paul writes his four “prison epistles.”
	Wed	Philemon 1-25	This one-chapter book fills in several historical details and teaches that the product of the gospel is a brother (in Christ).
	Thur	Colossians 1:1-2:7	Philemon was from Colosse, and since Paul was sending Onesimus back to Colosse, he used the occasion to send a letter to the church there as well. The theme of this letter is, “Christ is the Basis of the Risen Life.” As you read, note the emphasis he places on Christ (1:13-2:7).
	Fri	Colossians 2:8-23	Note the threats to the risen life (2:8-23)
	Sat	Colossians 3:1-4:18	Note Paul’s description of the risen life (3:1-4:6), and examples of people who were living the risen life (4:7-18).

A CHRONOLOGICAL BIBLE READING SCHEDULE by Skip Andrews

✓	Week 33	Scriptures	Notes
	Sun (8/17)	Acts 26:1-32	The events leading to the voyage to Rome continue in chapter 26 as Paul defends himself before Herod Agrippa, the last mentioned Herod in the Bible (descendants of Esau).
	Mon	Acts 27:1-44	Chapter 27 records the voyage and the shipwreck. This is not one of the shipwrecks of II Corinthians 11:25 because II Corinthians was written several years before this.
	Tue	Acts 28:1-31	Chapter 28 shows how Paul finally got to Rome. Remember the “prosperous journey” he had requested of them to petition for in their prayers (Romans 1:10)? The date is in the early 60's. Luke now finishes writing Acts, and Paul writes his four “prison epistles.”
	Wed	Philemon 1-25	This one-chapter book fills in several historical details and teaches that the product of the gospel is a brother (in Christ).
	Thur	Colossians 1:1-2:7	Philemon was from Colosse, and since Paul was sending Onesimus back to Colosse, he used the occasion to send a letter to the church there as well. The theme of this letter is, “Christ is the Basis of the Risen Life.” As you read, note the emphasis he places on Christ (1:13-2:7).
	Fri	Colossians 2:8-23	Note the threats to the risen life (2:8-23)
	Sat	Colossians 3:1-4:18	Note Paul’s description of the risen life (3:1-4:6), and examples of people who were living the risen life (4:7-18).

A CHRONOLOGICAL BIBLE READING SCHEDULE by Skip Andrews

✓	Week 34	Scriptures	Notes
	Sun (8/24)	Ephesians 1:1-23	Colosse and Ephesus were close together, so it was also appropriate to send a letter there with Tychicus and Onesimus (6:21,22; Colossians 4:7-9). This letter is often called the “twin” of Colossians, as it places as much emphasis on the “body” as Colossians does on the “head.” Chapter 1 speaks of the one head.
	Mon	Ephesians 2:1-22	Chapter 2 reveals the one new man.
	Tue	Ephesians 3:1-21	Chapter 3 tells us of the one family.
	Wed	Ephesians 4:1-32	Chapter 4 shows how the one body works.
	Thur	Ephesians 5:1-33	Chapter 5 portrays the one bride.
	Fri	Ephesians 6:1- 24	Chapter 6 challenges the one army.
	Sat	Philippians 1:1-30	The first three prison epistles say nothing about Paul's anticipation that he would be released soon, but he rather asks the readers to pray for him while he is in bonds. However, in Philippians, the epistle of joy, Paul does expect to be released soon. Thus, this letter was written later than the others.

A CHRONOLOGICAL BIBLE READING SCHEDULE by Skip Andrews

✓	Week 34	Scriptures	Notes
	Sun (8/24)	Ephesians 1:1-23	Colosse and Ephesus were close together, so it was also appropriate to send a letter there with Tychicus and Onesimus (6:21,22; Colossians 4:7-9). This letter is often called the “twin” of Colossians, as it places as much emphasis on the “body” as Colossians does on the “head.” Chapter 1 speaks of the one head.
	Mon	Ephesians 2:1-22	Chapter 2 reveals the one new man.
	Tue	Ephesians 3:1-21	Chapter 3 tells us of the one family.
	Wed	Ephesians 4:1-32	Chapter 4 shows how the one body works.
	Thur	Ephesians 5:1-33	Chapter 5 portrays the one bride.
	Fri	Ephesians 6:1- 24	Chapter 6 challenges the one army.
	Sat	Philippians 1:1-30	The first three prison epistles say nothing about Paul's anticipation that he would be released soon, but he rather asks the readers to pray for him while he is in bonds. However, in Philippians, the epistle of joy, Paul does expect to be released soon. Thus, this letter was written later than the others.